

Cancellation of moonSlice Hosting

Please immediately cancel hosting for the domain name: _____
Any domain names 'parked' on top of (pointing to) the above domain name will automatically be cancelled at the same time.

Any unpaid charges for the term will still be due and payable. 5 days notice prior to a new term required, so you may not want to cancel until the end of the term you have been invoiced for. If you choose to cancel within 2 weeks after the start of a new term, you may use any paid-for, but unused hosting fees towards hosting a new website in the future.

NOTE: Your website will be cancelled immediately upon our receipt of this notice, so prior to submitting this request, please be sure you have downloaded any information and files from your website you may want to keep.
